

Please continue to prohibit use of cell phones on airplanes. They would be too much of a nuisance. Even one encounter involving them doesn't warrant their authorization, and such encounters are highly probable given how people interact with each other today.